

PRESENT SIMPLE

How to conjugate:

Regular verbs

These type of verbs do not change dramatically and are constant.

Irregular verbs

These type of verbs change depending on the tense and are not always constant.

Present Simple

Present simple is a tense used to express habits and routines. They are activities that you repeat daily, weekly, etc.

For example:

I go to school Monday - Friday.

School is a habit, so to have a conversation about school, you can construct your message in Present Simple.

The conjugation of verbs in Present Simple is a very basic step to take when starting to learn English. Good news! Just like the name of the tense illustrates... the conjugation is simple!

1 First you have to establish your subject pronouns. The subject pronouns are:

I You He She It We They

2 Then you differentiate Regular Verbs from Irregular Verbs.

Based on the list of verbs in the previous definitions activity, the separation is:

Regular verbs : agree, answer, arrive, ask, begin, believe, bite, blow, break, bring, build, call, carry.

Irregular verbs: be, do.

3 Finally, you adapt the verb form in accordance to each subject. Analyze the tables below:

Regular Verbs
Subject	Agree	Begin	Call	Carry
I	agree	begin	call	carry
You	agree	begin	call	carry
He	agree s	begin s	call s	carri es
She	agree s	begin s	call s	carri es
It	agree s	begin s	call s	carri es
We	agree	begin	call	carry
They	agree	begin	call	carry

Irregular Verbs
Subject	Be	Do
I	am	do
You	are	do
He	is	does
She	is	does
It	is	does
We	are	do
They	are	do

So there it is, the conjugation of verbs in Present Simple. Comprehension of the connection between subject and verb is vital for correct conjugation, that and continuous practice!

