

Funny

The secret is in the definition too.

Funny = humorous

“Funny” is an adjective for people, things, or events that are humorous or cause amusement and laughter.

For example: Franco Escamilla is a funny comedian.

In this example, “funny” is an adjective because it describes the comedian.

The word “funny” can also express something strange or difficult to explain.

For example: That sandwich looks funny, it is not a good idea to eat it.

The function and definition depends on the context.
